

Kirami Outstanding Iron Monster

The Iron Monster frying plate is an extremely versatile cooking implement that acts like an old-style cooking range. Made of sturdy rolled steel, the frying plate is designed to be placed on top of a Roasty Boss grill or some other fireplace. The grill in the middle of the Iron Monster can be detached easily, which allows you to poke the fire conveniently through the hole. In addition to cooking, the Iron Monster can be used as a fireplace to create the perfect mood. Diameter 86 cm, weight 76 kg.
