

Kirami Iron Monster grill

The Iron Monster is a frying plate made out of sturdy rolled steel, which can either stand on its own feet or be placed on the Roasty Boss BBQ grill. On it, you can fry juicy stakes for the whole party at the same time!

When you combine the Roasty Boss pot, the Iron Monster frying plate and the redesigned, stylish stainless steel Iron Monster stand, you get the Iron Monster grill. The grate, which works as a base for the grill, can be filled with stones to match the surroundings or kept as a grate. The grill stand is always unique and is created as a by-product during the manufacture of other Kirami products. So the look of the stand may vary. All parts of the grill are also available separately.
